

FREE Dinner with the Doc

What You Need to Know About: Minimally Invasive ACL Reconstruction

Injuries to the ACL (anterior cruciate ligament) are among the most common of all sports-related knee injuries. An ACL becomes torn when it's stretched beyond its normal range of elasticity. Usually the injury occurs during exercise or sports and once the ligament tears, it doesn't heal and remains loose. Women experience ACL injuries more often than men.

Vivek Sharma, MD
Orthopaedic Surgeon

Dr. Sharma is in private practice with Colonial Orthopaedics, a full service orthopaedic practice serving patients of all ages.

To Learn More, Join Us

Tuesday, July 14, 2009, SRMC Classroom
5:00pm Dinner & 5:30pm Presentation

Seating is limited. Please RSVP to Tonya at 804.765.5393 by Thursday, July 9th.

200 MEDICAL PARK BOULEVARD
PETERSBURG, VIRGINIA 23805

 SRMC
SOUTHSIDE REGIONAL MEDICAL CENTER

